Coinline Auction Number 68 February 2007

Welcome to Coinline number 68. Happy New Year to everyone.

A few things coming up notably the Perth coin fair at Burswood Casino Saturday 10th & Sunday 11th of February. If you can make it along come & say hello.

This auction comprises 400 lots of mostly new material. The Canadian section is strong as well as some better gold, nice PCGS type coins, the last of our GB collection as well as bulk lots, sets, mint rolls & mint product.

When buying coins we like to think we are getting good value. Well I like to think Coinline is great value. This last month I have visited all the coin shops in Sydney & Melbourne. The first thing I noted was the lack of not only good material but mid range as well. Also the prices asked is really amazing. As an indication one major dealer had for sale a proof Penny & 1/2 Penny 1959 M for $1500, a 1946 penny gVF (cleaned as well but not noted) for $295. Another had a 1957 Florin Proof for $650 and a 1916 florin barely EF for $450 ! We try to source a lot of material privately, work on reasonable margins and above all rely on repeat business.

Lastly a note on coins graded by PCGS.

These coins are graded and sealed using strict grading standards. I recommend their website PCGS.com. (part of Coin Universe) This sets out standards, access to census reports and details how you can have your coins graded.

We have included a good cross section of PCGS coins from gold, silver, proofs, GB & even modern decimal. It is my belief that within five years most coins will be third party graded.

Collectors and investors are going to insist on an independent opinion on the grade of a coin especially if the coin is expensive. It is not unrealistic that even $100 coins will be independently graded. In the last month a specialist grading service has started in England. I have heard the holders are very attractive. In addition the US is now grading banknotes using the 70 point Sheldon system. In only 3 months this has taken off in a huge way. This is truly the greatest time to be collecting coins. This year from Pacific Rim Coins and Aussiegradedcoins.com we hope to bring you some of Australia's best material.

Regards Chris Buesnell

Auction No 68, Thursday 8th February 9.00 AM

How to Bid

Step 1: Decide on what lots you may be interested

Step 2: Dial Coinline on 02 47 84 2599

You will be asked for your bidder numbers. Enter these by pushing the numbers on your telephone.
